

This is a service that I pay for and should have the choice to access. Let fair competition and consumer demand decide if it should succeed. Don't regulate us out of basic choices such as satellite radio!